YOU DESERVE THE POWER OF A UNION

The union movement empowers people to work together for justice, equality, diversity and human rights. As a union musician, you get the resources to demand the pay, benefits, job security and respect that you deserve. This is much easier with the power of a union than if you try to negotiate separately on your own.

THE STRENGTH OF A UNION GIG

When you play a union gig, your benefits can include fair wages, paid rehearsals, paid soundchecks, premiums for doubling & cartage, health & pension contributions, job security, protection against unfair treatment, and much more. And if you aren't paid correctly or aren't treated respectfully, you get free representation from professional union representatives, including legal counsel.

Plus, if you ever get called for a low-paying non-union gig, we can help you turn it into a union gig. That's what union organizing is all about.
